Trip to Valley Garden Farms Is Offered Public

It was announced last evening by Arthur F. Judisch and Leon L. Dwight, selling agents for Valley Garden Farms, that the demand for small farms of the better variety has been so great that they have spent several months investigating good lands with the possibility of securing acreage that could be sold to the public with a clear conscience, and they believe that they have found the land of their satisfaction when they secured the exclusive selling rights of Valley Garden Farms. They are now making preparations to handle a large crowd next Sunday. Luncheon will be served on the ground to all. This will be a real gathering of harbor district families who are interested in good land on easy terms. There will be a caravan of automobiles to pick up and deliver the families to Valley Garden Farms. It will be necessary for those wishing to go to make reservations in advance at the offices of Mr. Judisch and Mr. Dwight in the Realty Board building at San Pedro.

Big Stars on Bills at Lomita Theatre

Friday and Saturday the Lomita Theatre offers "Monte Carlo," with a wonderful cast, including Lew Cody, Gertrude Olmstead, Roy D'Arcy (who played the Crown Prince in "The Merry Widow"), and Karl Dane, the star in "The Big Parade." Sunday and Monday come Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton in the comedy hit of the recent war, "Behind the Front." They are supported by Mary Brian. Monday night is the second week of Billy Murray's Chinese Country Store. Twenty bags of groceries and seven large, beautiful gifts, such as lamps, pillows, will be awarded, and also a five-piece breakfast room set. Tuesday and Wednesday is a large double bill—Cullen Landis and Roy Stewart in "Buffalo Bill on the U. P. Trail" and, by popular demand, the return showing of Chaplin in "Charley's Aunt." Next Thursday is the first of a three-day run in Lomita of John Barrymore, supported by George O'Hara and Dolores Costello, in "The Sea Beast."

Miss Peggy Clark, with her mother and brother, attended Lomita's State Theatre in Los Angeles Sunday.

Come and hear the gospel preached without fear or favor. Our fine orchestra and quartet will make the harmony.

LUTHERAN

On Thursday afternoon of last week 15 members of the Torrance Lutheran Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society motored to Inglewood to help celebrate the first anniversary of their sister organization in that city at the home of the president, Mrs. William F. Schneider, 533 West Olive street. In the course of the afternoon's program Mrs. L. C. Miller of 1820 Gramercy avenue, President of the Torrance society, spoke words well fitting the occasion. She brought heartiest greetings from all her ladies and expressed the wish that the present Christian and friendly relations might always continue to exist between the two organizations. Mother's Day will be observed at the Torrance Theatre this coming Sunday morning in the regular 9 o'clock service. The pastor, the Rev. W. Lange, of Inglewood, will be in charge. The morning's sermon will be based on the commandment, "Thou shalt honor thy father and thy mother." All interested are cordially invited to attend.

Musical Comedy Entitled "The Pirate's Daughter" To Be Presented

Interesting events have been taking place daily at T. H. S.; the oratorical contest, Boys' Week, the street-sweepers' ball, and now—"The Pirate's Daughter." This musical comedy will be presented by the students of the Torrance Junior School on the afternoon and evening of May 14 in the T. H. S. auditorium. The gorgeous costumes, singable lyrics, and clever lines promise an enjoyable evening for those who attend this entertainment. The choruses are well trained, the solo voices excellent, and the comedy characters exuberantly funny. "The Pirate's Daughter" is not a child's play, but a really grown-up musical comedy put on in miniature by the Junior High students, with a real love story, a necromancer from India, and some wild and woolly pirates.

TORRANCE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Baird spent Saturday in Long Beach. A group of Torrance men who went on a fishing trip to Big Pine last week included Arthur Finster, C. M. Mackenzie, J. R. Jensen, C. A. Faxman, William Steincamp of Hollywood, and John Holmes of Lomita. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Baird and family spent Sunday at Venice. Mr. and Mrs. M. Paul Eby and family visited Mr. Eby's father in Los Angeles Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gourdier left Tuesday by motor to visit friends in Nevada. Mr. and Mrs. Gourdier expect to be gone about a month.
